15th Real Estate Markets and Capital Markets (ReCapNet) Conference 26-27 October 2023 // ZEW Mannheim, Germany (in-person)

The network on Real Estate Markets and Capital Markets (ReCapNet) provides a forum for researchers in the areas of real estate finance, investment, economics, development, housing, urban planning, and public policy to present advanced working papers. Theoretical, empirical, and policy-oriented contributions are possible. The conference provides a forum that allows researchers to network while fostering the exchange of research ideas and results.

The 15th conference of the network will be hosted at ZEW Mannheim and organized by Steffen Sebastian (ZEW and IREBS, University of Regensburg) and Bertram Steininger (KTH Institute of Technology).

Topics of interest

The conference focuses on a broad range of topics related to real estate markets and their connected capital markets. Research papers in all areas of real estate finance and real estate economics are welcome.

A non-exhaustive list of potential topics includes

- Real estate finance and real estate economics
- ML and technology-oriented applications in the real estate sector
- Real estate asset pricing
- Housing affordability
- Real estate and pension finance
- Reverse mortgage
- Inflation hedge
- (Net zero) housing
- Green real estate and sustainability
- Behavioural real estate
- Global trends and real estate: risks and challenges
- Financial stability and real estate

Papers will be selected based on a competitive review process. Presenters will be asked to discuss another paper.

Submission: Please use our submission tool <https://tinyurl.com/recapnet2023> to submit your full working paper. An anonymized PDF version of your paper – without any information that could identify you (e.g. metadata, acknowledgements and references to institutions) – is required.
