16th Real Estate Markets and Capital Markets (ReCapNet) Conference KTH Stockholm 28-29 October 2024

The network on Real Estate Markets and Capital Markets (ReCapNet) provides a forum for researchers in the areas of real estate finance, investment, economics, development, housing, urban planning, and public policy to present advanced working papers. Theoretical, empirical, and policy-oriented contributions are possible. The conference allows researchers to network while fostering the exchange of research ideas and results.

The 16th ReCapNet conference will be held only in-person at KTH Institute of Technology, Stockholm.

Topics of interest:

The conference focuses on a broad range of topics related to real estate markets and their connected capital markets. Research papers in all areas of real estate finance and real estate economics are welcome.

A non-exhaustive list of potential topics includes:

- Real estate finance and real estate economics
- ML and technology-oriented applications in the real estate sector
- Real estate asset pricing
- Housing affordability
- Real estate and pension finance
- Reverse mortgage
- Inflation hedge
- (Net zero) housing
- Green real estate and sustainability
- Behavioural real estate
- Global trends and real estate: risks and challenges
- Financial stability and real estate

Papers will be selected based on a competitive review process. Presenters will be asked to discuss another paper.

Submission: Please use our submission tool <https://app.oxfordabstracts.com/stages/75678/submitter> to submit your full working paper. An anonymized PDF version of your paper – without any information that could identify you (e.g. metadata, acknowledgements and references to institutions) – is required.
